Strider

Is your teeny tiny toddler DESPERATE to get out and explore?

Keeping little ones active as they grow provides a great foundation for them to excel and thrive in life. And one of the most exciting ways to get them out and about more is to give them their own set of wheels – such as the Strider 12 Sport Balance Bike.

Designed for kids as young as 6 months, this bike helps your child build strength, improve hand-eye coordination and become confident in exploring their surroundings (and it's a great way to burn off all that pent up energy they have...). All this before they're even out of their diapers!

The Strider balance bikes and the Strider rocking base are a great alternative to baby regains and strollers, and give your little one a taste of independence. All bikes in the range are sturdy and built to last, so they'll make the perfect sidekick to whatever your toddler gets up to wherever that will be.
